Those of you in The Class of 1976 will remember this "Year of Spirit" for a very special reason.

Our Nation's bicentennial celebration lends a certain patriotic aura and extra excitement to your final year at Admiral Farragut.

I trust that each of you will face your future with the same spirit of determination, understanding, knowledge and faith as demonstrated by our nation's forefathers.

Captain Earl M. Clark

IN DEDICATION

In this year our nation's bicentennial, we dedicate this book and its memories to a person who has recently joined the company of other great departed leaders.

CAPTAIN EARL

5 May 1915
25 Feb. 1976

Over the past thirty years, Captain Clark has touched the hearts and guided the lives of thousands of young men of Admiral Farragut Academy. His direct influence on and through these young men has been felt throughout the world during his lifetime, and in death it can be no less.

May God use his skills in another life, so that those who pass through these portals in the future may be guided by his light. Our beloved Headmaster has passed on to a greater responsibility.

Best Record In 13 Years

"The whole world is the tomb of heroic men, and their story is not graven in stones of clay, but abides everywhere without visible symbol."

Such is true of the 1975-76 Bluejackets — one of the most astonishing football teams ever to cross the turf of the Farragut gridiron . . . truly an Iron Man team of the highest caliber.

The "Iron Men" opened the season with a 20-6 upset over Shorecrest. It was a tough battle all the way. Mighty Trinity Prep was next, and Farragut travelled to a hard loss of 21-0. But if Farragut's football recovery started with Shorecrest, it arrived with Bishop Verot. The underdog "Iron Men" once again came up with a dazzling upset of 17-16!

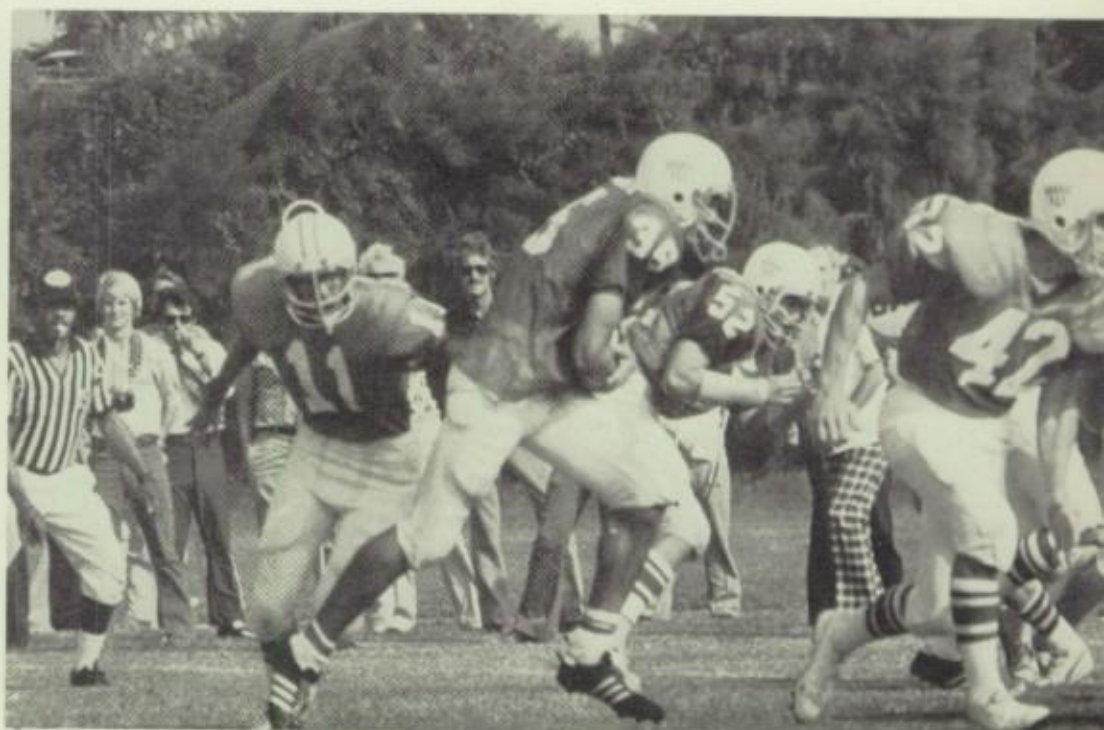

A tough Temple Heights team showed up the following week in pouring rain, only to be beaten by a tougher Farragut eleven, 16-6.

Farragut was stymied the next two games; Cardinal Mooney pulled out a 15-8 win on a freak play, and Clearwater Catholic edged by 20-18 — both in the last minute of hard fought games.

This was indeed a story book team, with a dashing, reckless, and tantalizing way of winning games. On November 6, the Jackets traveled to Land-O-Lakes and showed what winners are made of by fighting for a 27-7 victory.

The team had one final challenge — Berkley Prep. On the night of November 14, the "Iron Men" showed their courage under pressure as they came back from a halftime deficit and winning 20-9. This was the first time that a Farragut football team had beaten Berkley Prep since 1962 . . . Moreover, it was the first winning football team for Admiral Farragut in the past 13 years.

The 1975-76 Bluejackets will endure in the minds of all who saw them play. They will go down in Farragut history as one of the most exciting and impressive teams ever to play at AFA.

"Guamanian" hopes to obtain a military commission after attending The Citadel where he will major in history.

GENE'S LOBSTER HOUSE

The Jolliest Port for Midshipman or Admiral

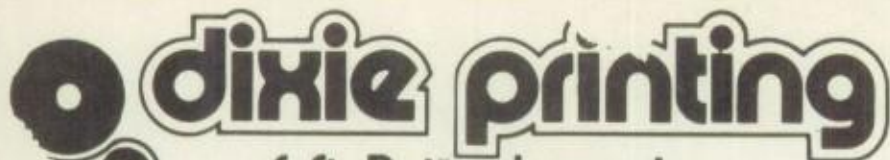

According to scuttlebut, the shade of doughty Admiral Farragut haunts our fine seafood restaurant. Could be pure myth... and yet, both the top brass and Sunday sailors find the Lobster House a happy ship. For good reasons. The sea treats we serve are fresh off the dock—caught by our own trawler, the "Heidy M." And freshness makes a whale of a difference in flavor! Our galley cooks these Gulf treasures with the expertise that makes them a delicious experience. Equally enjoyable are our stone crab, Florida lobster, oysters from Apalachicola—all the bounty of Florida waters. You can pick your own Maine lobster live from our tanks... and dine on other delicacies from the Seven Seas. The decor evokes the romantic past of windjammer days... and you can lunch by a window and watch the boats sail along the Intracoastal Waterway. Evenings are lively with music. And our friendly crew makes even a midshipman feel like an admiral! We think Admiral Farragut would find the Lobster House a jolly port to haunt... and our famous grog the real thing! Make this discovery yourself.

The one and only Gene's—on the Gulf side of Madeira Beach Bridge.

Welcome aboard... Noon 'til very late EVERY day

AT MADEIRA BEACH BRIDGE, off Rt. 19-A (Or via Gulf Blvd., turn east on 150th Ave.)
